TENNESSEE NEWS.

Capt. O. T. Plummer and Mr. John A. Cooper have been appointed Railroad Commissioners upon the part of Lewis county.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Jackson has succeeded in securing the services of Rev. G. W. Mitchell, D. D., of Pulaski, as their minister.

Thousands of bushels of goober peas have been the past season taken to Columbia from Hickman and other counties, and sold at Nashville prices.

Somerville is steadily improving. Some new buildings are going up and quite a number in contemplation, which the beginning of spring will find in progress of Partners' Bank. 05 crop of Obion county for 1871 is estimated at not less than three thousand bales, averaging five hundred pounds to the bale, making a total of 1,500,000 pounds. A subscription paper is now being presented to raise the necessary means to build a line hotel in Jackson. Some of the largest property-holders are taking an active interest in the matter. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shelton, of Columbia, received on the night of their "golden wedding," fifteen dollars in gold from different lows: friends. Mrs. Shirley gave Mrs. Shelton a gold ring, which was brought from England, and was one hundred years old. Wade Lang, alias Wade Hampton, a negro, recently stole a trunk from the house of John Melton, six miles from Lagrange, Tenn. The trunk contained $2,000 in currency, $100 in gold, an open-face gold watch and a quantity of ladies' apparel. The negro was subsequently arrested, and most of the property recovered.

There are five men in the $4th district of Maury county, who drew pensions from the government for military services ren- Third National Bank, dered in the war of 1812. Their names are Elijah Rieves, Hugh Griffin, Bobbey Jackson, Arthur Crafford and James Williams. These veterans are nearly all of the same age, and have always been among the best citizens of our broad land. The Commissioners of the Duck River Valley railroad met in Columbia on the 13th inst. Although the meeting was slimly attended, yet some important business was transacted. The Executive Committee have appointed Maj. E. F. Falconnet Chief Engineer of the road, and have taken the necessary steps for the survey of the road. The survey is to take place at an early day. It was also determined to change the termines of the road from Tullahoma to Fayetteville, and the necessary legal steps will be taken at once to that effect.

POINTS OF SUNRISE AND SUNSET IN DIFFERENT SEASONS .- If you could stand on the north pole of our earth, the sun would, during the summer time, never set, Cotton and Hay Presses. and, on the longest day of the year, move round and round, always 221 degrees above your horizon.
